

Eugene Funk, long-time McLean County business and community leader, was the former president of Bloomington's Funk Brothers Seed Company. Mr. Funk's great-grandfather settled in McLean County in 1824 and moved through the ranks of his family's hybrid seed business to lead the firm in the postwar years. Eugene Funk died in 1995.