

Gary Mangina, as supervisor of building craftsmen, volunteered to get the tennis courts upgraded. This summer he facilitated the replacement of lighting and the installation of a new ceiling in the U-High Lounge. Gary also updated the nurse's office, installed private bathroom facilities, and provided new clocks throughout the building.