

Friend of U-High: Susan Thetard

University High School honors faculty member, Susan "Suzie" Thetard, as the recipient of the 2011 Friend of U-High Award for her service as an educator, mentor, and friend of the students of U-High. Suzie currently serves as a faculty member in the English department and director of the theater program.

In 1996, Thetard first joined the lab schools as a faculty associate at Thomas Metcalf School. In 2000, she joined U-High as a full-time faculty member. Thetard has directed and produced numerous student productions, including the most recent performance of Andrew Lloyd Webber's The Phantom of the Opera, which debuted in the grand reopening of Stroud Auditorium in April, 2011.

Thetard is married to Jon, class of 1969, and together they have two daughters, Stacia Thetard, class of 1997 and Tiffany Thetard Roby, class of 1998.
